

Enlisted PME Continuum Overview

BLUF: Graduates of the Enlisted PME Continuum are expected to return to their parent commands more mentally, morally, physically, and spiritually tough – capable of making an immediate impact on generating and preserving combat readiness and lethality at echelon.

Current State

- IN – Focus on Leadership & Warfighting
- IN – Standards Based – Doctrinally Aligned Curriculum
- IN – Drill & Ceremony, Customs & Courtesies, Physical Fitness
- IN – Counseling, MBS, JPES, Fitness Report, Award Writing
- IN – Formative Practical Application (Terrain Models, TDGs)
- IN – 5-Paragraph Order, Estimate of the Situation, BAMCIS
- IN – MAGTF, Naval, Joint Integration and Combined Arms
- IN – Combat Power Preservation
- IN – CDET is separate but inseparable
- OUT – Faculty Advisor (Leadership & Warfighting Instructor)
- OUT – Community College Mindset
- OUT – Information Heavy Academic Curriculum
- OUT – Theory Discussions
- OUT – Academic Writing

Takeaway: The Enlisted PME Continuum is performance-based, practical application oriented – to develop a bias for action, aggressive problem-solving and communication skills, sharpens tactical judgement, and ethical decision-making ability – under pressure.