Language, Regional Expertise, and Culture (LREC) Training Support Request (TSR) Form

Today's Date	Organization:
Unit Requesting Support
Unit Commander
Unit Primary & Secondary POC Rank, Name, email(SNCO/Officer)
Unit POC Commercial/DSN/Mobile

The requesting unit is responsible for coordinating suitable training venues and funding all costs. Contracted LREC training and operational support is procured through task orders and the associated procurement requests (PRs). First, units submit a TSR to CRSS_Training@usmcu.edu no later than T-45 (T = the first day of the month of training, e.g. NLT 15 April for training beginning during June). 90-120 days of lead time is recommended for ECLE support. Second, CAOCL/CRSS personnel send an independent government cost estimate to the requesting unit POC(s). Third, the requesting unit submits a PR (and if any details changed, also send an updated TSR to CRSS_Training@usmcu.edu) NLT T-35. Lastly, CAOCL/CRSS personnel submit the task order to the contracting office NLT T-30. Only federal employees or uniformed personnel in an active status may sign this TSR; contractors are legally prohibited from doing so. See <https://www.usmcu.edu/caocl/training/> for additional information.
