Profile:

LT Stephen Mossman received his commission through the NROTC program at the University of Mississippi (Ole Miss). His first assignment was as 2nd Division Officer stationed in Norfolk, VA onboard USS Whidbey Island (LSD 41). During this tour he was a SAR (Search and Rescue) swimmer and officer, along with becoming the VBSS (Visit, Board, Search and Seizure) officer. For his second tour LT Mossman served as the Amphibious Planning Officer on the III MEF staff in Okinawa, JP. He participated in all the major exercises to include: UFG, Key Resolve, and Cobra Gold. From there, he was given the opportunity to attend Expeditionary Warfare School as a student. Directly following his year at EWS, LT Mossman was billeted with becoming a faculty member on the EWS staff. As the Academic Information Management Officer (IMO) he is excited to have direct impact on the school curriculum.
