

Major Mark A. Greenlief

Military Faculty Advisor
Expeditionary Warfare School
Marine Corps University

Marine Corps University

South Street
Quantico, VA 22134

Phone (703) 432-0141

mark.greenlief@usmcu.edu

Areas of Interest:

- Maneuver Warfare
- Counterinsurgency Warfare
- Expeditionary Operations
- Hybrid Threat Theory/Warfare

Profile:

Major Mark Greenlief is currently a Military Faculty Advisor with Expeditionary Warfare School, Marine Corps University, Quantico, Virginia. Upon commissioning and selection as an infantry officer, Major Greenlief was assigned to 1st Battalion, 6th Marines. From 2007-2010, Major Greenlief served in Company B as a platoon commander and company executive officer – participating in Operation Asada Wosa as part of the 24th Marine Expeditionary Unit to Garmsir, Afghanistan and Operation Moshtarak to Marjah, Afghanistan.

From 2010 - 2013, Major Greenlief was assigned to the School of Infantry-East. He served as Assistant Operations Officer Infantry Training Battalion, Company Commander Company E Infantry Training Battalion, and Company Commander Company F Marine Combat Training Battalion. In 2013 he was selected and attended Expeditionary Warfare School.

Upon completion of Expeditionary Warfare School, Major Greenlief was assigned to 3rd Battalion, 2d Marines. As Company Commander, Company K he deployed in support of the Unit Deployment Program-East (UDP-E) to Okinawa, Japan-participating in the Korean Military Exchange Program and Balikatan 15. Immediately following, he was assigned as the Operations Officer, attended Marine Corps Tactics and Operations Group Tactical MAGTF Integration Course, and deployed in support of the UDP-E. On return from deployment, Major Greenlief was assigned as the Executive Officer of 3d Battalion, 2d Marines until June 2017.

Major Greenlief holds a BA in Political Science from the University of Illinois Champaign-Urbana (2005) and an MS in Leadership from Boston University (2012).