

MAJOR JANE OREN

Course Director, Profession of Arms Expeditionary Warfare School Marine Corps University

Expeditionary Warfare School

2077 Geiger Road
Quantico, VA 22134

Phone (703) 432-0668

jane.oren@usmcu.edu

Areas of Interest:

- Missile systems
- Satellite architecture
- International politics
- Trail Running
- Fun runs

Profile:

Maj Jane Oren received her commission through the OCC program. Her first operating forces assignment as an intelligence officer was Marine Air Group-26, followed by assignment as the intelligence officer for Light Attack Helicopter Squadron-167. She deployed with HMLA-167 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom 05-07. She then transferred back to MAG-26 as the S-2 before joining the faculty at Marine Aviation Weapons and Tactics Squadron 1 serving as an instructor in the Intelligence Department. She attended resident EWS and MAGTF Intelligence Officer Course before being assigned to her next operational billet as the Fusion Officer for the Reachback Element in support of 1st Intelligence Battalion Forward. She then deployed to Operation ENDURING FREEDOM as the Fusion Officer for Regional Command Southwest in support of I MEB-Afghanistan. Upon redeployment, she served as the Assistant Operations Officer and then assumed command of Direct Support Company and Operations Company. As the Operations Company Commander, she also served as the Director for the I MEF Intelligence Center. Following attendance at Marine Corps Command and Staff College, she then joined the faculty of Marine Corps University and served as a Faculty Advisor and Sub-course Director for the Intelligence Occupational Field Expansion Course for Expeditionary Warfare School. She currently serves as the Course Director for Profession of Arms.

BA (Spanish and International Studies), Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri, 2002

MMS (Military Studies), Marine Corps Command and Staff College, 2017