Subj: EDUCATION COMMAND (EDCOM) ORDER: UNIT, PERSONAL, AND FAMILY READINESS PROGRAM (UPFRP)

Ref: (a) MCO 1754.9B

Encl: (1) Quarterly Command Team Meeting template
(2) Monthly Volunteer Meeting notes template
(3) Expenditure Request/Reimbursement (NAVMC 11652)
(4) Training Matrix
(5) Unit, Personal and Family Readiness Program Authorization (NAVMC 11654)
(6) Unit, Personal and Family Readiness Program Opt-Out Form (NAVMC 11657)

1. Situation. Per the reference, this order issues EDCOM guidance regarding the Unit, Personal, and Family Readiness Program (UPFRP), establishes Standing Operating Procedures (SOP), and identifies required UPFRP training, roles and responsibilities.

2. Mission. To standardize and implement the EDCOM UPFRP in order to ensure each Marine, regardless of deployment status or operational tempo, maintains optimum unit and personal effectiveness. All EDCOM Officers in charge (OICs) and staff non-commissioned officers in charge (SNCOICs) will ensure Marines within their sections are familiar with the policy, procedures, and guidance contained herein.

3. Execution

a. Commanders Intent and Concept of Operations

(1) Commander's Intent

(a) EDCOM's most valuable resources are Marines, Sailors, Civilians, and their families. It is imperative to the success of our institution that section OICs and SNCOICs advocate and promote the UPFRP by acknowledging the link that exists between personal and family readiness. Section OICs and SNCOICs will make awareness of this program a priority among their personnel and families. Two-way communication with engaged leaders, personnel, and their families will result in a successful program.

(b) Section OICs and SNCOICs are accountable and responsible for operating the program within the established guidelines contained in the reference. Additionally, section OICs and SNCOICs are supported with the implementation of the program by the EDCOM Unit Readiness Coordinator (URC), Marine Corps Community Services (MCCS), local, state, and federal agencies, organizations and programs. These organizations and programs have a vested interest in ensuring commanders receive the necessary resources and support to foster every aspect of our UPFRP.

(c) EDCOM UPFRP will educate, assist, and empower personnel and families by providing information, tools, resources, and support in order to achieve and maintain a high-level of personnel and family readiness and resiliency in response to Life-cycle events.

(d) EDCOM OICs and SNCOICs shall use the policies and procedures contained herein to ensure an applicable and accessible UPFRP is maintained and enforced.

(2) Concept of Operations

(a) Communication Tools

1. Per the reference, we will utilize two methods in order to communicate with our families; Email the Family Readiness Module Marine Online (MOL).

2. Frequency. At a minimum, EDCOM designated contacts will be sent a message via one of the aforementioned channels on a monthly basis. MCU is active on Social Media and provides several key opportunities for families to get together and engage the command throughout the year. In the event families need to be directly contacted, direct email correspondence will be initiated.

3. Conditions of Use. These modes of communication are to be used solely for the distribution of family readiness information by/from the Unit Readiness Coordinator (URC) or Deputy Uniformed Readiness Coordinator (DURC).

(b) Communication Restrictions. MCU social media sites are all run in accordance with the USMC Social Media policy published at <https://www.marines.mil/Portals/1/Docs/Social-Media-Handbook20170308.pdf>

(c) Crisis Communication Guidance

1. Flow of Information to Authorized Contacts

a. Commander issues a message.

b. URC releases the crisis communication message via email and MOL to authorized contacts.

2. URC role in Assisting Families During a Crisis. The URC/DURC will provide resources, answer questions, and act as a liaison between family members and the command in a crisis situation. At no point shall the URC/DURC act as a casualty assistance officer.

1. Seasonal family days.
2. Bi-Annual Single Marine Program (SMP) events.
3. EDCOM Open Houses.
4. Any additional event approved by the EDCOM Commanding General will abide by this order.

(e) Outside contracts and equipment requests will be coordinated through MCCA. Additional events will be discussed during quarterly volunteer meetings to determine the feasibility of support. Section OICs and SNCOICs are encouraged to attend all events to increase morale and welcome new families to EDCOM.

(f) Volunteer meetings and Command Team Meetings will take place in the command conference room or any available space that meets the needs of the meeting, and will be coordinated by the URC in accordance with the reference.

1. Per the reference, Command Team Meetings take place on a quarterly basis and, at a minimum, cover the following (see enclosure 1 for template): Current financial status, upcoming events, new volunteers, and Single Marine Program (SMP) updates.
