

I

Norm of the Game

- Be adaptable and unpredictable so that adversary can neither ascertain nor anticipate our moves.

yet
moral leverage

- Possess a winning theme or ~~character~~ ^{that} ~~(we can)~~ not only allows us to expose the flaws of competing or adversary systems but also allows us to amplify our spirit and strength as well as influence the uncommitted, or potential adversaries so that they are drawn toward our philosophy and ~~empathetic~~ are empathetic toward our success

? - Rules & Questions - ?

- How do we make ourselves adaptable and unpredictable as well as evolve ^{that} a winning theme ^{that} ~~allows us~~ ^{moral leverage} allows us (To be aware and indispensable) to shape and adapt it events in the world

II

with respect to ourselves we must:

- Surface those flaws, blemishes, or contradictions (as they arise) that generate mistrust and discord, as well as find ways to overcome or eliminate them, so that they neither alienate us from one another nor set us against one another ~~they~~ destroy our internal harmony, paralyze us, and make it difficult to cope with an uncertain, everchanging world.

In opposite fashion

- Emphasize those cultural traditions, previous experiences, and unfolding events that build-up harmony and trust, thereby create the implicit bonds, that permit us, as an individual and as an organic whole, to shape as well as adapt to the course of events in the world.

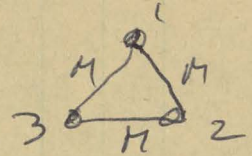

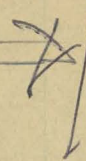

with respect to our adversaries we should:

- Reveal those bonds

III

1. what he proposes to be
2. what he is
3. what he has to deal with

Moral Leverage

with respect to our adversaries we should

- Reveal those harsh statements that adversaries make about us -- particularly those that denigrate our culture, our achievements, our fitness to exist, etc., as basis to show that our survival and place in the scheme of things is not necessarily a birthright, but is always at risk.
- ~~Reveal adversaries ineptness and corruption and designs sub-rosa designs he has upon world as well as upon his own citizens. And the mismatches in terms of what he proposes to be, what he is, and the world he has to deal with --~~
~~to the world, to his own citizens as well as ourselves. And the mismatches in terms of what he proposes to be, what he is, and the world he has to deal with~~ Likewise
- Reveal mismatches in terms of what adversary proposes to be, what he is, and the world he has to deal with on order to surface to the world, to his citizens, as well as to ourselves, his ineptness and corruption ~~and~~ as well as the sub-rosa designs he has upon the world, his citizens, ourselves and the world at large

IV

Moral Leverage

with respect to others we should:

- Show that we bear no harm via respect for their culture and their achievement as well as assistance
- Respect their culture and achievements yet do not tolerate condone or support those ideas and actions that ~~are~~ ~~communicate~~ ~~to~~ or undermine ~~our~~ or work against ~~the~~ our culture, ^{and} our philosophy ~~and~~ ~~our~~ ^{and} hence our interests and our fitness to cope with a changing world.
