
OCTOBER 2023 | VOLUME I ISSUE IV

MCU ALUMNI NEWSLETTER

The latest alumni news and updates from
Marine Corps University

Hello alumni students, faculty and staff and welcome to the October edition of the alumni newsletter. We hope this letter finds you well!

Need Transcripts?

If you need transcripts or other official student documents from your time at MCU, reach out to the registrar to make a request.

Program Information

Please fill out our contact form so you can be added to our contact list. A welcome letter will be sent shortly. In the meantime, take a look at our webpage, previous newsletters and our social media.

Join the Alumni Association!

The Marine Corps University Foundation has an alumni association. The association helps to fund different aspects of the university and offers a variety of different benefits. Click here for more information.

Updates from the Krulak Center

Check out the most recent Brute Cast, the Krulak Center's podcast available on various streaming platforms and on YouTube. Additionally, "Down the Rabbit Hole" and "Middle East Studies Talks" are available on their YouTube channel, check them out.

Alumni Spotlight

Photo courtesy of Marines.mil

Name: Colonel Reginald J. McClam

School: MCWAR 2019

Current Job: Commanding Officer, The Basic School

Col. McClam currently serves as the Commanding Officer for The Basic School in Quantico, VA. An Infantry Officer his entire military career, Col. McClam has had some unique opportunities including serving as the Marine Corps Aide to President Obama. To find out more about Col. McClam's accomplishments and awards, check out his bio.

Can We Feature You?

Alumni, we want to hear about what you have been up to. To send in your alumni update, email us at mcu.alumni@usmcu.edu.

MCU Press

MCUP is an excellent resource for print media and is always looking for written contributions for their digital-only journal Expeditions with MCUP. Submit an article here!

Follow Us on LinkedIn and Twitter

Follow our social media accounts for more information about updates and events.

Stay tuned for our next newsletter in November!