

"Iran's Revolutionary Guard: Facing Challenges Foreign and Domestic"

Dr. Kenneth Katzman

Congressional Research Service

This is the first lecture in a series being hosted by the Middle East Studies at Marine Corps University entitled "Framing the Iranian Challenge".

As a specialist with the Congressional Research Service, Dr. Katzman serves as a senior Middle East analyst for the U.S. Congress, with special emphasis on Iran, Iraq, Afghanistan, the Persian Gulf states, and terrorist groups operating in the Middle East and South Asia. He provides reports and briefings to Members of Congress and their staffs on U.S. policy on these countries and issues, and provides analysis of related legislative proposals. He has visited both Iraq and Afghanistan on several occasions since 2004, and has followed all the countries he covers since the mid-1980s. He also has written numerous articles and publications, including a book entitled The Warriors of Islam: Iran's Revolutionary Guard, and given many official presentations and briefings at conferences and in bilateral meetings throughout Europe, Asia, and the Islamic world. Dr. Katzman holds a Ph.D. in philosophy and political science from New York University.
