

"Afghanistan: War of Necessity or Quagmire"

Ambassador Peter Galbraith

This is the third lecture in a series entitled "A Multidisciplinary Approach to AfPak Region and Its People" being hosted by the Middle East Studies at Marine Corps University.

Ambassador Galbraith has served in senior positions in the US Government and the United Nations. Most recently, he was Deputy Special Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations to Afghanistan and an Assistant Secretary-General of the UN until October 2009. From 1993 to 1998, Peter Galbraith was the first US Ambassador to Croatia where he mediated 1995 Erdut Agreement that ended the Croatia War. Ambassador Galbraith is one of America's foremost experts on Iraq, having been a regular visitor to the country since the early 1980s. As a staff member for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, he uncovered Saddam Hussein's murderous "al-anfal" campaign against the Iraqi Kurds.
