

"Terrorism and the Pashtun Tribal Lands"

Abubakar Siddique

RFE/RL

This is the seventh lecture in a series being hosted by the Middle East Studies at Marine Corps University entitled "A Multidisciplinary Approach to AfPak Region and Its People".

Mr. Abubakar Siddique is a Senior Correspondent covering Afghanistan and Pakistan for Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty (RFE/RL). Mr. Siddique has spent the greater part of the past decade researching and writing about security, political, humanitarian and cultural issues in Pakistan, Afghanistan and the Pashtun heartland along the border region where he was born. In 2006, Mr. Siddique co-wrote a report with Barnett Rubin for the U.S. Institute of Peace that was the first analytical work to address the importance of Pakistan's tribal areas in "Resolving the Pakistan-Afghanistan Stalemate. More recently, Mr. Siddique wrote an article on the Pashtuns of Afghanistan and Pakistan for the National Defense University's "Global Strategic Assessment 2009: America's Security Role in a Changing World".
