

“Afghans’ View of Afghanistan’s History”

Professor Robert D. McChesney
New York University

This is the second lecture in a series entitled “A Multidisciplinary Approach to AfPak Region and Its People” being hosted by the Middle East Studies at Marine Corps University.

Dr. McChesney is a Professor emeritus of Middle Eastern and Islamic Studies and History as well as the Director of the Afghanistan Digital Library at New York University where his area of research is early modern history of Iran and Central Asia. He has published numerous papers and books including: Waqf in Central Asia: Four Hundred Years in the History of a Muslim Shrine, 1480-1889, 1991; Central Asia: Foundations of Change, 1997; and Kabul under Siege: Fayz Muhammad's Account of the 1929 Uprising, 1999.

Thursday, 18 February 2010, 1400-1530

Gray Research Center, Main Auditorium
2040 Broadway Street, MCB Quantico
Quantico, VA 22134

For more information about the event, or to RSVP, please contact Adam C Seitz, Sr. Associate MES, at (703) 432-5260 or seitzac@grc.usmcu.edu