

"What the Middle East Meltdown Means for the Transatlantic Relationship"

Mr. Derek Chollet

The German Marshall Fund of the United States

Derek Chollet is Executive Vice President and Senior Advisor for security and defense policy at The German Marshall Fund of the United States, and author of the book, The Long Game: How Obama Defied Washington and Redefined America's Role in the World (Public Affairs, 2016). He served in senior positions during the Obama administration at the White House, State Department, and Pentagon. From 2012-2015, Mr. Chollet was the U.S. Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs, where he managed U.S. defense policy toward Europe (including NATO), the Middle East, Africa, and the Western Hemisphere. In that role, he was a senior advisor to two secretaries of defense, Leon Panetta and Chuck Hagel. Prior to joining the Pentagon, Mr. Chollet served at the White House as special assistant to the president and senior director for strategic planning on the National Security Council Staff. Mr. Chollet is a contributing editor to Foreign Policy, where he coedits "Shadow Government," and is a regular contributor to Defense One. He is also an advisor to Beacon Global Strategies and an Adjunct Senior Research Scholar at Columbia University's Saltzman Institute of War and Peace Studies. His previous books include America Between Wars: From 11/9 to 9/11, coauthored with James Goldgeier, and The Unquiet American: Richard Holbrooke in the World, coedited with Samantha Power. Mr. Chollet has been a fellow at the Center for a New American Security (CNAS), the Brookings Institution, the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS), and the American Academy in Berlin. He has been a visiting scholar and adjunct professor at The George Washington University and an adjunct associate professor at Georgetown University. He is the recipient of numerous honors and awards, including the U.S. Department of Defense Medal for Distinguished Public Service, and the U.S. Secretary of Defense Medal for Outstanding Public Service.
